

Yes! There is a relation between Uncle Bill's Pancake House and Aunt Betty's Ice Cream Shack! Aunt Betty's was named after the O'Hara family matriarch, Betty O'Hara (Bill's wife).

Aunt Betty's Ice Cream Shack opened its doors in the summer of 2006 on 21st street, next to Uncle Bill's Pancake House and behind Blitz's Market. The storage shed was transformed into an ice cream shack serving both hard and soft ice cream in a tropical setting complete with palm trees, island-inspired fans, Reggae music, and a bamboo deck. In 2008, Aunt Betty's 2nd location was opened at 40th street and West Ave. in Ocean City.

Aunt Betty's staff and customers return year after year, a testament to our continued success. In 2010, Aunt Betty's was named Best of the Shore in Philadelphia Magazine and New Jersey Monthly! We are very proud to be a Jersey Shore icon and work hard to keep up our good reputation.

Thank you for allowing us to serve you this evening!
